Judge's CV

Jannie Lubbe ROM

Lubjan Bull Terriers

The greatest honor of all is to be entrusted by one's peers with judging a show - especially a Specialist Club's Championship Show. I deem it a huge privilege to judge the Western Province Bull Terrier Club's Championship show for a 2nd time.

I have now judged close to 1200 Bull Terriers since qualifying at Championship show level 24 years ago, half of which was done overseas in countries like France, Slovakia, The Netherlands, Australia and Chile. I had the honor of judging the South African Major Trophy Show twice, and officiated at a local Specialist Club Show at least once a year over the last 24 years.

It will always be my goal to breed top quality Bull Terriers, as I believe that this is the acid test for judges. The achievements of Multi Champion Lubjan Rock and Stone is well-documented, being the 2nd most prolific producer of Champions in world history - 38 champions. Ch Lubjan Gravure de Roche of Rion is the holder of the breed record in South Africa with 69 Best of Breeds to his name. He was also the Top Terrier in 2009. Ch Lubjan Monchou of Rhizen equaled the Breed record by winning the Dog of the Year at the Major Trophy Show for 3 years in a row, joining his famous father, Rock, as the two Major Trophy Show winners (Supreme Bull Terriers) bred by us. We owned or bred 3 of the ROM Champions in South Africa to date, and the only two littermates to achieve this.

That being said, rendering a service to my co-breeders and being honored to go over, judge and critique their dogs, is still the greatest privilege and honor of all. I take it very seriously and pledge to be focused and dedicated to one goal - finding and rewarding the Best Bull Terriers present in the ring on the day.

May the Best Dog Win
