SOUTH AFRICAN BULL TERRIER CLUB 66th CHAMPIONSHIP SHOW

Mr Ortlieb Lothary

Mr O Lothary ROM (Germany) - CV

Ortlieb's journey in the so-called Bull Breeds started in 1978, he purchased a first Bull Terrier bitch. He was always interested in the so-called Bull breeds.

In 1983 he acquired a first American Staffordshire Terrier. He was "Bomber Kamikaze" and one of the most successful Amstaffs of his time. He won 31 CCs and easily became a Champion and used at stud with great success.

In 1988, Ortlieb bought a Staffordshire Bull Terrier: "Bronco vom Husarendenkmal" called "Spike". He also was a great show dog and producer.

In 1997, Ortlieb showed a self-bred Bull Terrier male "Lothary`s Mortimer" at the great International Show in Berlin where about 5900 dogs were exhibited. Mortimer won the "Best In Show" title, which has not happened in Germany ever since.

Ortlieb has been judging the Bull Breed for over 26 years and in has done so in 20 different countries. He was invited to judge the American Staffordshire Terrier at the World Championship Show in Dortmund 2003 and judged the Staffordshire Bull Terriers at the World Show in Leipzig in 2017. He judged at the British Bull Terrier Trophy Show on no less than five occasions.

He and his wife Dagmar are still successfully breeding Bull Terriers and Miniature Bull Terriers. They have bred four UK MBT Champions and won the bitch CC at the Crufts Show on four occasions.

Ortlieb is the only judge from Germany on the Kennel Club's "A List" for judging Bull Terriers.
