SCHEDULE 05E(12) – REGULATIONS FOR KUSA NATIONAL HANDLER OF THE YEAR COMPETITION

(Effective 00.00.2023 tbc)

1. LICENSING AND SHOW REGULATIONS

The Regulations and other matters governing Championship Shows are set out in Schedule 03 of the KUSA Constitution. These Regulations apply to this Competition insofar as they are relevant and not in conflict with the terms of this Schedule 05E(12) or those of Schedule 05K.

Throughout this Schedule, words importing the singular shall include the plural; words importing the masculine gender shall include the feminine and neuter genders and vice versa, unless such interpretation is inconsistent with the context thereof.

2. SCOPE OF THE LICENCE

An All-breeds Club, which is qualified to hold a Championship Show in the calendar year in which it is intended to hold the KUSA National Handler of the Year Competitions, may hold the event named in this Schedule in conjunction with such Championship Show, or separate therefrom.

3. ELIGIBILITY FOR COMPETITION

3.1 KUSA National Child Handler Class

For persons of eight (8) but under twelve (12) years of age on the day of the National Competition who have qualified to enter in terms of Regulation 5 of this Schedule.

- 3.1.1 Should a Child Handler elect to move to the Junior Handler Class before the National Competition is held, qualifications gained in the Child Handler Class are automatically relinquished,

3.2 KUSA National Junior Handler Class

For persons of eleven (11), but under eighteen (18) years of age. Open only to Handlers whose eighteenth (18th) birthday does not fall on any of the days on which any stage of this Competition is held.

- 3.2.1 Qualifications gained as Child Handler are invalid as qualifications for the KUSA Junior Handler of the Year Competition.
- 3.2.2 The KUSA National Junior Handler of the Year Competition shall only be open to winners of Junior Handler Classes.

3.3 KUSA National Adult Handler Class

For persons over eighteen (18) years of age.

4. HOST

Until or unless this Schedule 05E(12) is amended or altered, the Host for the KUSA National Junior Handler of the Year shall be KUSA.

5. QUALIFICATIONS FOR ENTRY

5.1 A Child or Junior Handler will be considered as having qualified if he has won first place in his Handler Class at any All-breeds Championship Show held between the day after the previous Competition and the day before the current Competition.

5.2 Handlers who have qualified in terms of Regulation 5.1 shall be invited to compete in the Finals in whichever Handler Class they fall, or elected to fall, at the time of winning the prize which qualified them for the Finals, provided that they are South African citizens and resident in South Africa

6. CONDITIONS OF ENTRY

6.1 All qualifiers for the KUSA National Child and KUSA National Junior Handler Competitions must provide written proof (a copy of Qualifying Certificate) of qualification for entry as required in terms of Regulation 5.1.

6.2 It is not mandatory for any dog competing in these Competitions to compete in a recognised compulsory Breed Class at the Show at which the Competitions are held.

6.3 All Handlers are required to dress in a manner befitting this competitive event and to display and conduct themselves in a courteous and sportsmanlike manner.

6.4 The official KUSA Handler Entry Form shall be used which, for entrants under eighteen (18) years of age shall be signed by their Legal Guardian and be accompanied by proof of age in the form of either a copy of a Birth Certificate, the first page of an Identity Document, or Passport. All Handler Class entries must be on a separate Handler Entry Form and not combined with the breed entry of an exhibit. Any dog that is to be used for Handling in this competition, including the "pool dogs", must be eligible for entry at Championship Shows in accordance with Schedule 03, and must be in the Registered Ownership of a paid-up member of KUSA.

6.5 It is a condition of entry that Handlers or any dogs handled in the Final may not be used for any advertising purposes without the written permission of any sponsors for this event.

6.6 It is not permitted to handle a bitch in season in any Handler Class.

7. PRIZES AND AWARDS

7.1 The KUSA Floating Trophies for each KUSA National Handler Class shall be engraved with the winner's name.

7.2 The winners of the Final in the respective KUSA National Handler Classes will be titled KUSA National Child Handler of the Year, KUSA National Junior Handler of the Year or KUSA National Adult Handler of the Year, as appropriate.

8. JUDGING

8.1 When judging this Class the Judge shall consider, inter alia,:

- 8.1.1 That the exhibit is not “blocked” from the Judge’s view at any time, i.e. that the Handler should avoid being positioned between the exhibit and the Judge;
- 8.1.2 Any extravagant or theatrical handling;
- 8.1.3 The ability of the Handler to control the exhibit;
- 8.1.4 The ability of the Handler to “set up” or “stack” the exhibit;
- 8.1.5 The ability of the Handler to gait the exhibit at a desirable pace for the proper assessment of movement;
- 8.1.6 The ability of the Handler to present the exhibit to its best advantage; and
- 8.1.7 The dress, grooming and ring demeanour of the Handler, taking weather conditions into account.
- 8.2 Only standard Handler ring patterns are allowed. (Refer Appendix 1)].
- 8.3 The quality of the exhibit shall not be taken into consideration by the Judge.
- 8.4 Under no circumstances should questions be used as a means of testing a Handler’s knowledge. A Judge should limit conversation with Handlers.
- 8.5 Handlers who exhibit impatience or heavy-handedness with their exhibits must be penalised.
- 8.6 Handlers not present after three calls by the Ring Steward should be marked absent.
- 8.7 Control of Dogs
 - 8.7.1 Should it become evident that a Handler is unable to control his own exhibit, the Judge must excuse the Handler and exhibit from the ring.
 - 8.7.2 A Judge may request Handlers to swap exhibits, provided that the Judge is confident that the Handler is capable of controlling/handling his new exhibit. Should unruly behaviour occur after swapping, the Judge must instruct the return of the exhibit to the original Handler without penalty.
 - 8.7.3 Swapping of exhibits by Child Handlers is not permitted.
 - 8.7.4 Should an exhibit show any signs of any aggression, the Judge shall be at liberty to exercise his sound discretion and, if warranted, excuse the Handler and exhibit from the ring.
- 8.8 Judging Order of KUSA National Junior Handler Finals
 - 8.8.1 Handlers will enter the ring in draw order (not catalogue order) initially competing with their own exhibits. The Judges will shortlist four (4) Handlers and the four (4) shortlisted Handlers will be required to return to the ring at a scheduled time for the final round to handle unknown dogs to be selected from a pool. In the final round, each of the four (4) shortlisted Handlers will be required to handle two (2) exhibits from a pool of dogs provided by the organisers. The organisers will provide the Judges with a list of the breeds of dog in the pool and the Judges will select which two breeds each finalist will handle. Each dog in the pool may not be allocated to more than two (2) Handlers. Handlers will be allowed five (5) minutes with each of their allocated dogs prior to the start of the final round and will enter the ring in draw order.
- 8.9 Following the round of judging with new exhibits, the four (4) handlers will return with their original dogs and the winner of the Competition will be announced.

9. JUDGES

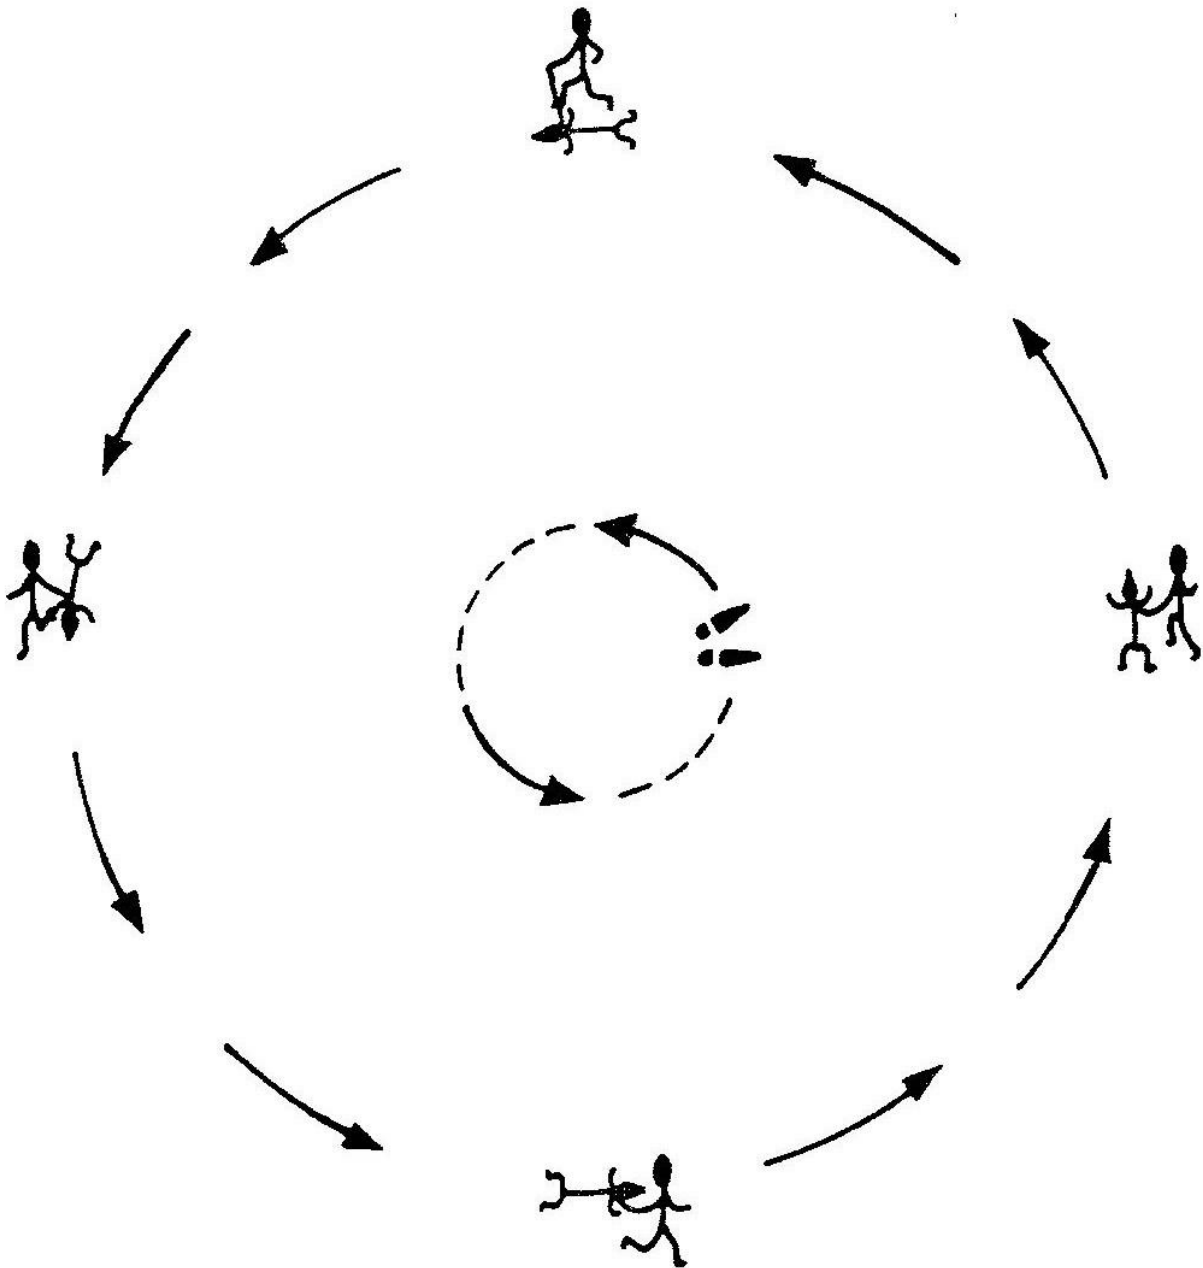

- 9.1 A KUSA Judge must be qualified as specified in Schedule 05K and Schedule 10. A foreign-domiciled Judge shall either be qualified as a specialist Junior Handler (Junior Showmanship) Judge in his own country or be approved by KUSA to Judge Best in Show in this country.
- 9.2 The National Junior Handler Competition will be judged by two (2) qualified Judges with a referee in attendance.

10. SPONSORSHIP

The event may be sponsored permanently or on an annual basis by any enterprise acceptable to KUSA. In the years when the event is sponsored, the title may be preceded by the name of the sponsor. Should a sponsor elect to withdraw its sponsorship from the event, it will not prejudice the holding of the event in that year or any succeeding year. To ensure that the event is not jeopardised through withdrawal of sponsorship, KUSA and any sponsor shall enter into an agreement in which the terms and conditions of sponsorship are clearly set out.

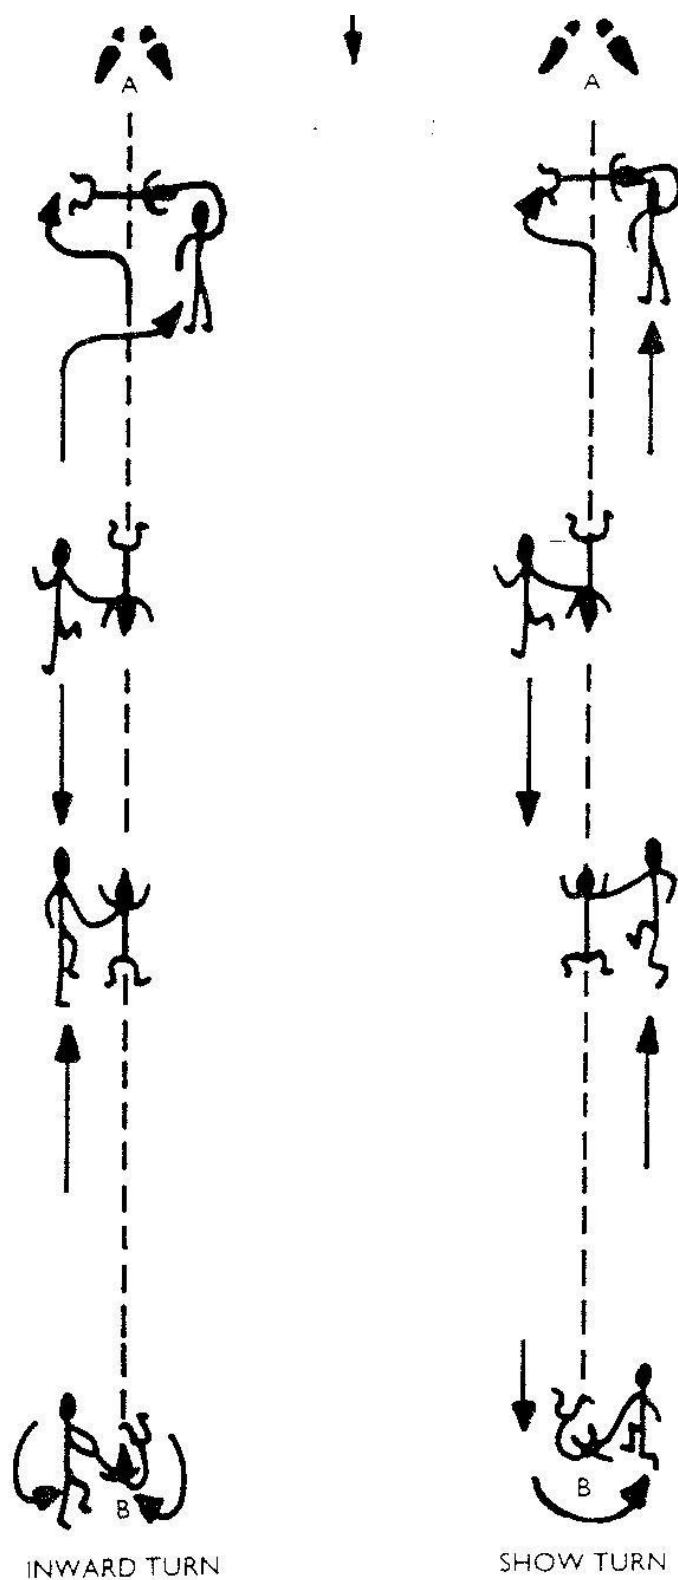

APPENDIX 1
RING PATTERNS AS REFERRED TO IN SCHEDULES 5E(12) REG 8.2 and 05K REG 4.1.7

1. THE CIRCUIT
