

FCI INTERNATIONAL (AFRICA) CACIB SHOW

31 May 2019

WELCOME TO THE FCI INTERNATIONAL (AFRICA) CACIB SHOW OF THE KUSA CLASSIC 2019

I welcome the Exhibitors who have supported and entered their dogs in yet another FCI International (Africa) CACIB Show and wish you a most successful and enjoyable day at this 2019 Show.

In re-reading a document put together by the late Mike Darwin in 2003, I thought I might share with you some information on KUSA and the FCI. KUSA has come a long way with the FCI since 1962 when its Associate Membership of the FCI was first announced. Many years later, after considerable negotiations, KUSA was accepted as a full member of the FCI at the FCI General Assembly held on 7 June 1993, with a unanimous vote recorded in favour of the decision.

KUSA has held FCI Shows for some 12 years now. In the early years, only one FCI Show was held per annum, but the number of Shows has increased steadily and last year five FCI Shows were on offer in various regions of the country. KUSA's Membership of the FCI is extremely important and we should make every effort to nurture and sustain it in the future.

Thank you to the Judges who have been appointed to Judge at this Show and to the Ring Stewards and Ring Secretaries for all their time and effort.

We are further most appreciative of the support from Royal Canin and extremely grateful for the company's generous sponsorship of the KUSA Classic and all the shows offered as part of the cluster.

Yours sincerely,
Jenny Hubbard
Chairman of the Northern Areas Provincial Council
Vice-Chairman of Federal Council of KUSA

Without your support this weekend would not been possible
