KUSA CHAMPIONSHIP SHOW

1 JUNE 2019

THE KUSA CHAMPIONSHIP SHOW OF THE KUSA CLASSIC 2019

It gives me great pleasure to welcome one and all to this annual celebration of South African dogdom. It is Gauteng's honour to host the KUSA Classic this year and, as part of the KUSA Classic Consultancy Committee, I thank the organising team of René Potgieter, Kevin Young, Colleen Patience and Santie van Niekerk for the many hours they had spent planning and executing this cluster of shows.

We are honoured to welcome such a stellar panel of Judges to South Africa, garnered from all over the world. The KUSA Classic takes pride in exposing our exhibitors and dogs to a body of opinion which is not only diverse, but also truly global. It's great to win, but the primary object is to gain value from an expert opinion and to use it to best advantage in the future.

To our exhibitors who travelled from near and far, thank you for stretching the budget to join us for KUSA's premier event. These are challenging economic times for many South Africans and unfortunately dog shows did not escape the effects of inevitable austerity.

To all the volunteers who officiated over the Classic weekend – Ring Stewards, Ring Officials, Scribes, Administrative Officials, our thanks and appreciation. Also, to Goldfields Kennel Club and its Grounds Sub-Committee, thank you for making these beautiful grounds and facilities available to us.

To our sponsors, Royal Canin, none of this would be possible without your continued commitment to the South African dog scene. Organised dogdom is proud and honoured to be associated with your superior brand and we hope that your support will continue long into the future.

I wish all involved in the KUSA Classic a pleasant few days in Gauteng's ideal winter weather and hope that your journeys will be safe and fortuitous.

Gérard Robinson
Chairman: Districts of Gauteng and Surrounds Provincial Council (DOGSPC)
Member of the Federal Council of KUSA

Without your support this weekend would not been possible
