CHAIRMAN'S MESSAGE

Dear Ridgeback Friends,

Welcome to the 72nd Anniversary of the SARRC's affiliation to KUSA. We hope you will all enjoy your day with us.

Our judge today is Ridgeback and Hound specialist, Neil Kay.

Neil Kay has spent his entire life with show dogs, as both his parents were very involved.

He has been involved in the political side of show dogs, having been a chairman at both all breed and specialist clubs and Championship shows.

For his dedication in furthering the interests of the Kennel Union Of Southern Africa, he was awarded the honour of Life Vice President of KUSA.

Together with his wife Janet, he has had a very successful dog show career, having bred and won Best in Show with Longhaired Dachshunds, Whippets and Chinese Crested and in addition has made Champions in other breeds including Ridgebacks, Smooth Fox Terriers and Boxers.

Their greatest achievement was to win the S.A. Dog Of The Year award with a homebred Whippet, the only Whippet ever to achieve this honour.

Neil has judged Championship shows in Brazil, Argentina, Australia, New Zealand, Norway, Finland, India and Germany, also the U.K. In addition he has judged in all the countries in Africa that hold dog shows.

Like all breeds, group and other specialist clubs, our numbers have dwindled over the years and today's entry is just 17 Ridgebacks. This is due to the escalating cost of petrol and accommodation, but also apathy on the part of Ridgeback owners who are prepared to accept our free services during the year, but are unwilling to bring a dog to the show to keep the sport alive.

This appears to be not just a South African problem, as on a recent trip to Ireland, I found that one Ridgeback trophy show was down to single figures.

Breeders, please encourage puppy buyers to join the club, train their dogs and come to shows. It is your shop window!

Thanks to our ring-steward, Sue Kranz - and our Hon Vet, Dr Rochelle Erlich, for giving up their Sunday.

A particularly big thank-you to the sponsors, especially Vernon and Vanessa Cole at Ridgeback Wines, Anne Manduell at Aristopets for the superior shampoo and conditioner and to Propet Treats for their continued support.

Our dog food sponsor informed us just 3 months before our show that they would not be on board this year. This unsporting news came too late for us to find another food sponsor.

Luckily I was able to bring prizes for every dog, from my aunt's house in the UK, for which we are very grateful.

Thank-you to you, the exhibitor, for turning out year after year and to our Ridgebacks, who give their all in their desire to please us. Win or lose, please remember to make them feel like they were the best dogs there!

Good sportsmanship is of great importance at the SARRC show and every dog is cheered for, no matter from whence it comes.

Thanks to the committee for their commitment and hard work towards making the day a success.

Please join us after the show for drinks and snacks.

Drive home safely.

Yours in Ridgebacks,

Liz

Liz Megginson (Chairman)
